Dedication And Appreciation

The class of 1990 would like to express its thanks to Mr. Loomis for the advice, guidance, and understanding he has given us as a teacher, a leader, and as a friend, throughout our years here at West Rutland. His dedication to our class and to all the students at West Rutland is greatly appreciated. We will never forget you, Mr. Loomis, or any of the lessons that you have taught us. This is our way of saying "Thank you for everything."

To Mr. Remington, one of our class advisors, we want to show our appreciation of all that he showed us. He showed us how to be a great senior class. Since he had us in classes since our freshman year, he either thinks that we are really great seniors or he's been at West Rutland too long. Thank you for bearing with us, Mr. Remington.

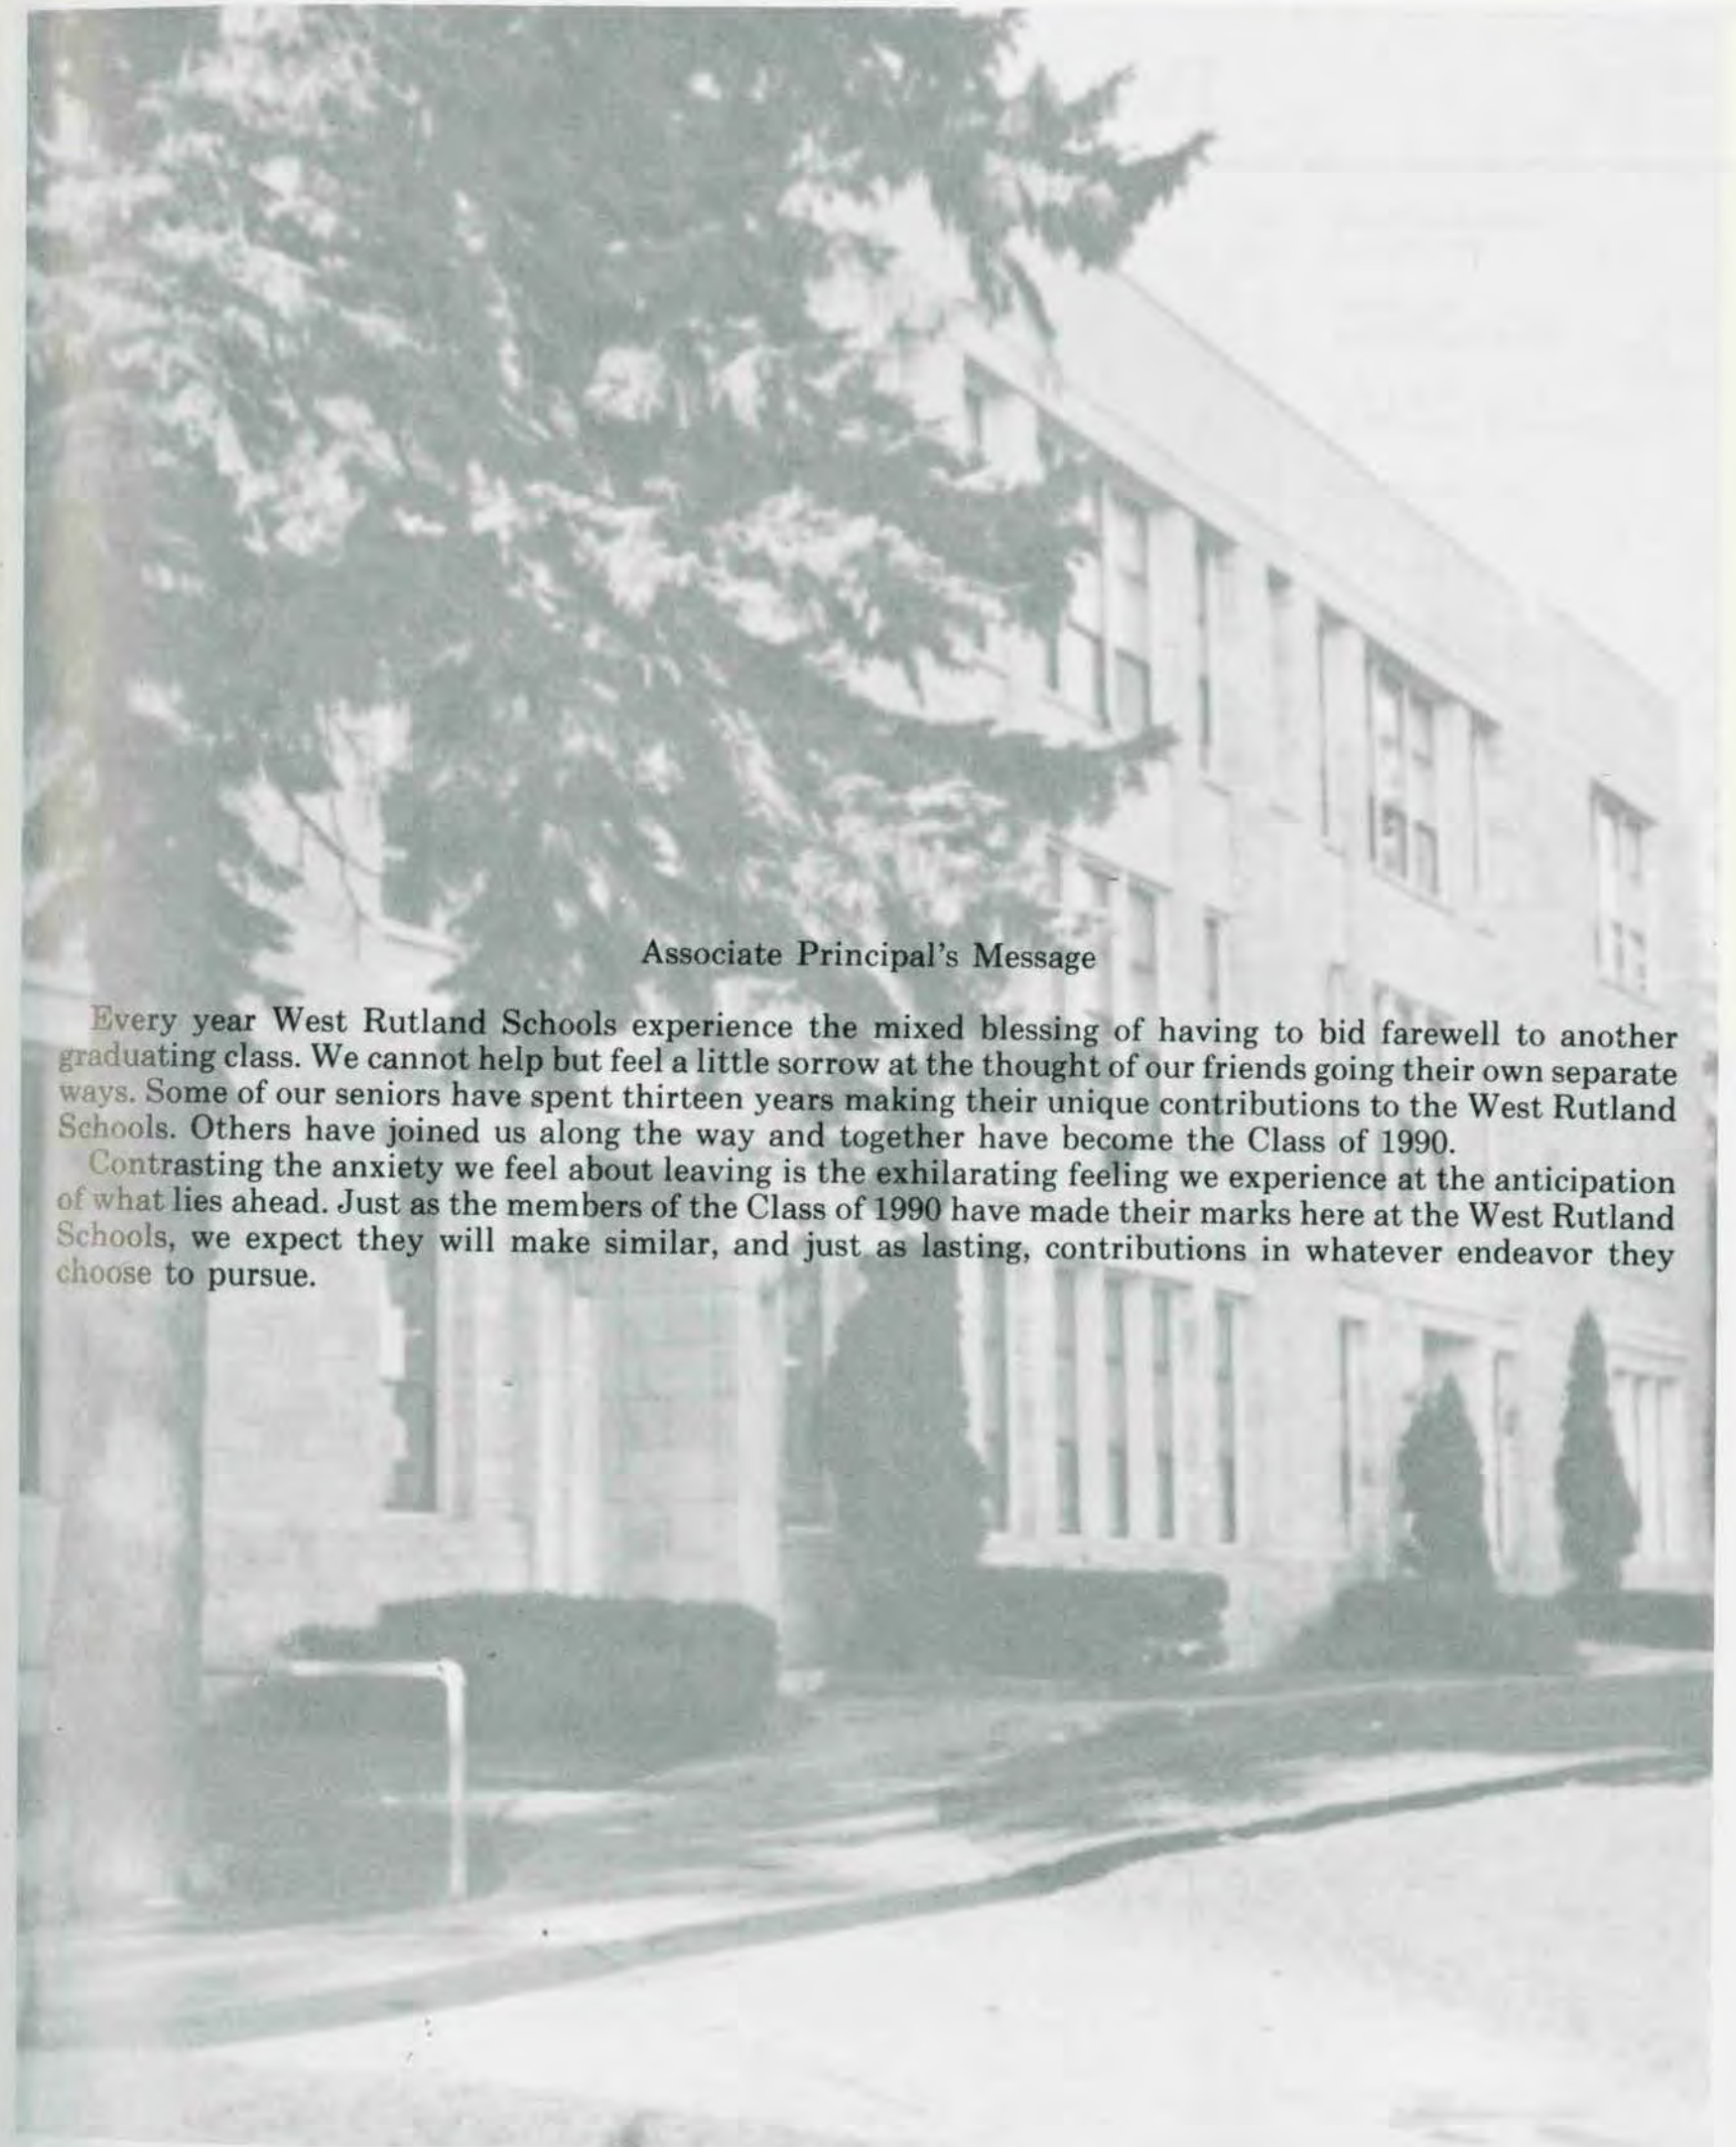

And to Mr. Deuel, one of our class advisors also, we want to thank him for everything. He helped us work together and have fun. He kept us going when we wanted to give up, which was quite often. He really was a asset to the class of 1990.

Associate Principal's Message

Every year West Rutland Schools experience the mixed blessing of having to bid farewell to another graduating class. We cannot help but feel a little sorrow at the thought of our friends going their own separate ways. Some of our seniors have spent thirteen years making their unique contributions to the West Rutland Schools. Others have joined us along the way and together have become the Class of 1990.

Contrasting the anxiety we feel about leaving is the exhilarating feeling we experience at the anticipation of what lies ahead. Just as the members of the Class of 1990 have made their marks here at the West Rutland Schools, we expect they will make similar, and just as lasting, contributions in whatever endeavor they choose to pursue.

Class Prophecy

Here it is, the year 2000, the 10 year class reunion of West Rutland High School Class of 1990. It is being held at The Galaxy Emporium, which has been made by remodeling the marble quarries of Westside.

First to arrive are Jen Bean and Angel Brown. They are psychologists that counsel humanoids with all their problems. They try to let love rule and treat the humanoids, but we all know where their minds go.

Next to walk in the door are Jarrod Pratt and Mike Wedin. They hunt new species of mutated animals developed by world renowned chemist, Stephanie Rogers. Not only are these mutants mean, they're big too. They can change forms to look like humanoids. Jarrod and Mike have specially constructed guns that they've developed themselves to hunt these things.

Ten minutes later George Hoisington flies in. George has become a space patrol officer in his XLV 1900 hoovercraft by FURN. He can catch everything that moves anywhere in 7 galaxies.

Following George, Tracey Loseby, and Gina Pelkey slide in. They have opened their own space pizza place called Weird Westside Pizza. It is located in the swamp next to the Galaxy Emporium. They are catering tonight's event. It is universally known as the place to eat.

After an hour of nobody arriving, Lynn Wedin and Tom Crossman storm in with Jason Wilber close behind. Lynn and Tom have built a drug rehab center in Middletown. It's been said that it's the best place in the galaxy, but they do use strange methods to cure people. Most of their ideas for methods come from Jason. Through extensive study, Jason has become an expert on the subject and has published numerous books about it.

Next come Fron Grabowski and Laurie Beaulieu, who are still close. They drove up in Fron's custom made Galaxy Hovercraft. He has become the ultimate in male models for exotic farming wear. Laurie is the lead singer for the new space-aged band, SPACE CRUISERS.

Next, Lori Lanfear arrives in the very expensive ZWZF space vertible. Lori has become Dr. "Lois." She is dressed in sequins, and she counsels the humanoids that can't relate with Jen and Angel.

All gussied up arrives Stacey Springer. She now owns a personal beauty salon catering to the Rich and Famous, especially Dennis Smith, who is the hottest model for "POP!" magazine. He landed the job after appearing in the way- way- way- off Broadway production of the Stetsons.

Sharon Johnston made the set design for Stetsons and was recruited to repaint the Sistine Chapel bold new colors. Sharon has also had many famous works of art shown on Venus, where she is also the ruler of the planet.

Brian Crandall and Bill Wetherby have formed the infamous Party Place. It is stocked with everything any party could ever need for any occasion.

Two that have been known to visit the store frequently are Robert Pearo and Allen Hewitt. They annually hold anniversary parties many times a year for their Space-aged Awning Co, Inc. They have broadened their business to include not only the Milky Way, but other galaxies as well.

Next are Laura Mcallister and Jason Kelley. They have been married for eight years. While at Brian and Bill's Party Place, they were married at midnight on November 5th by some space-aged robot. They now have the most ailed children in galaxy k-15, where they own many condos.

Last but not least to arrive are Keith Herrington, Jack Kelly, Dave Burke, and Christy Perry. They are all dressed in hot pink and acid green with the announcement "the party can start now! we are here!"

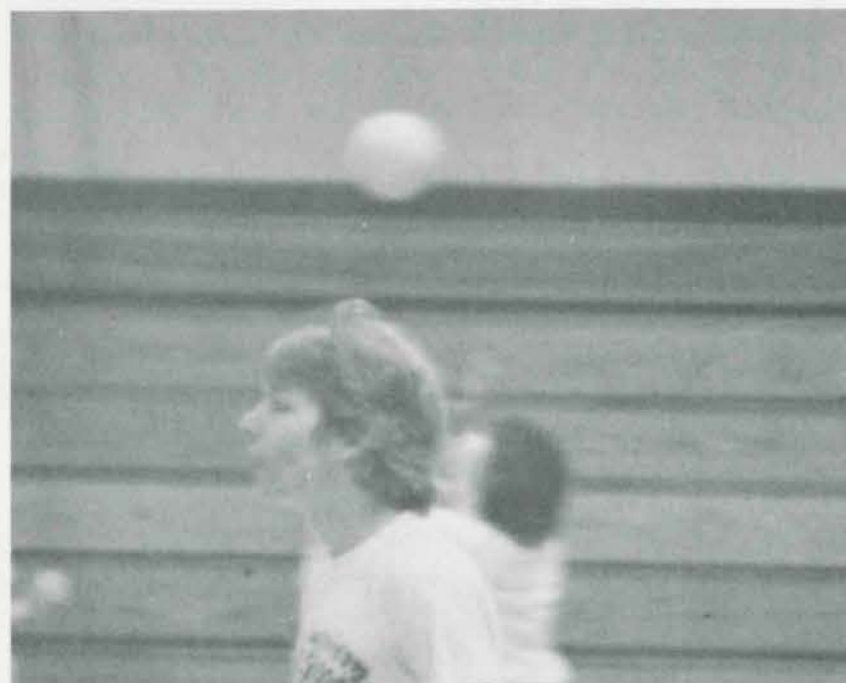

Dave and Christy have created "DREAMS". It is an exclusive, expensive, exotic theatre. Here you can have your dreams become reality and taped, explained, and improved!! Anything that your heart desires or mind imagines can come true. Euphoria can be achieved by allowing these two to create dreams to enjoy anytime.

Keith now has all the clues for everything. He knows all the answers to most everything in the universe. Everyone and everything flocks to him to quench their thirst for knowledge.

Jack has become a teacher on Neptune. He teaches the English language and how to speak his French. He loves to be around beings who are strange. Keith and Jack usually help out at "DREAMS" in their spare time.

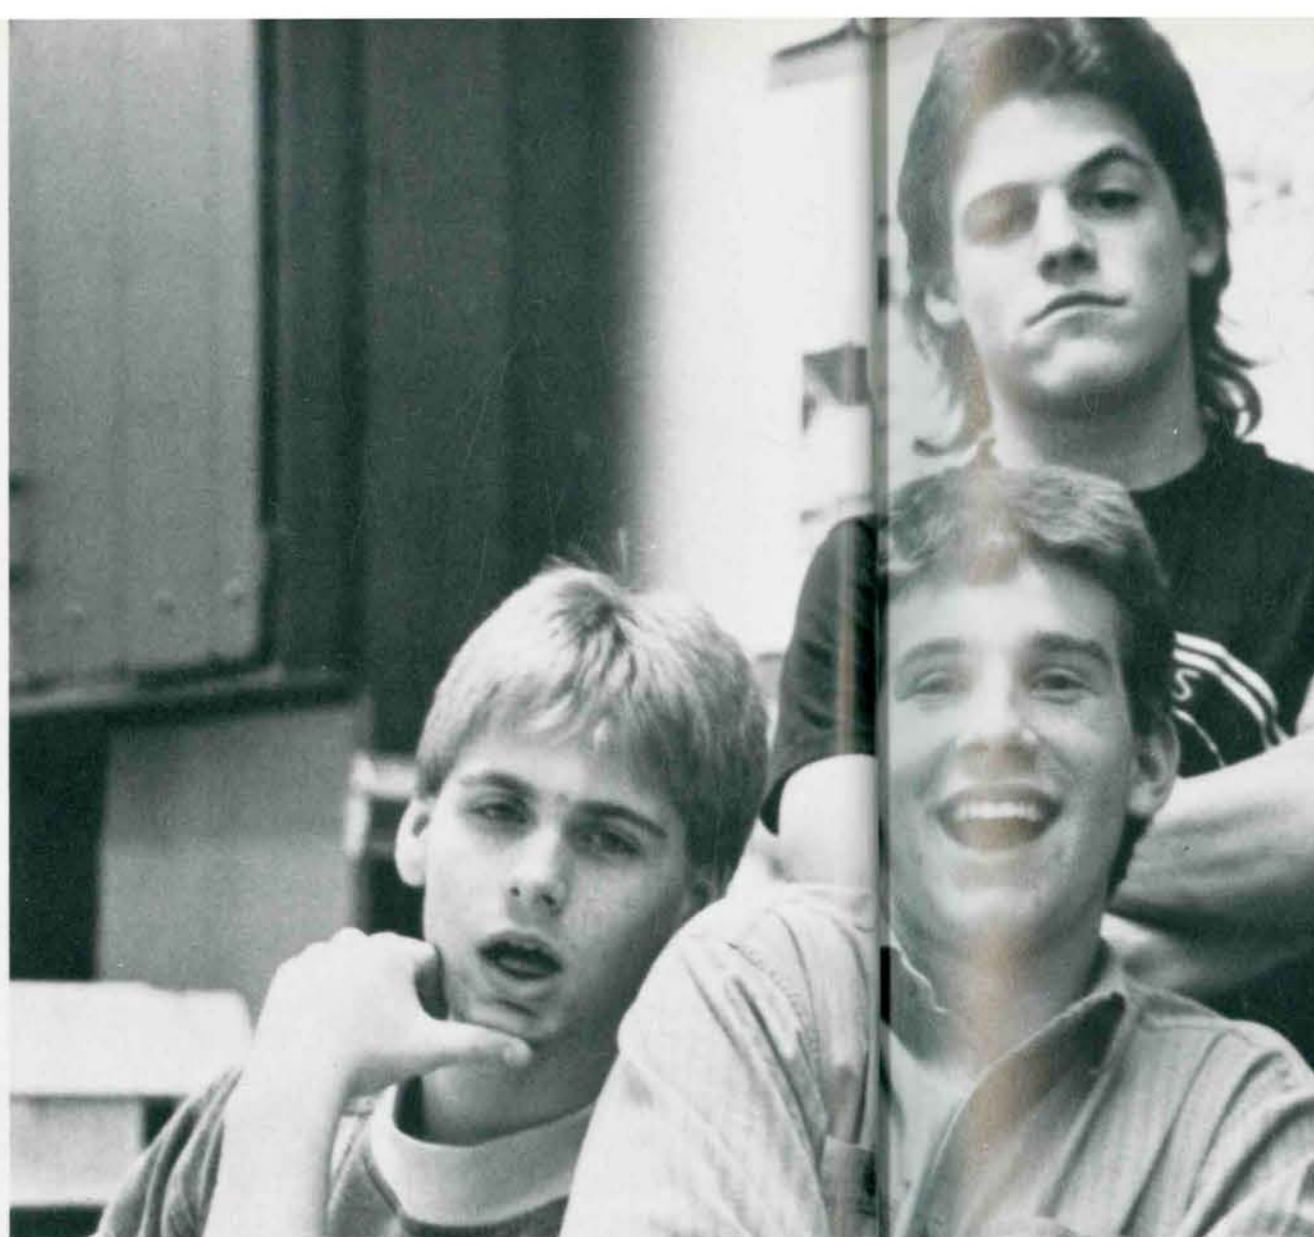

In conclusion, it appears that all have done well and can't wait for the twenty year reunion. Who knows how much more demented the class will become. If it is possible to be any more out of it?!

The three stooges?

Another great mind in action.

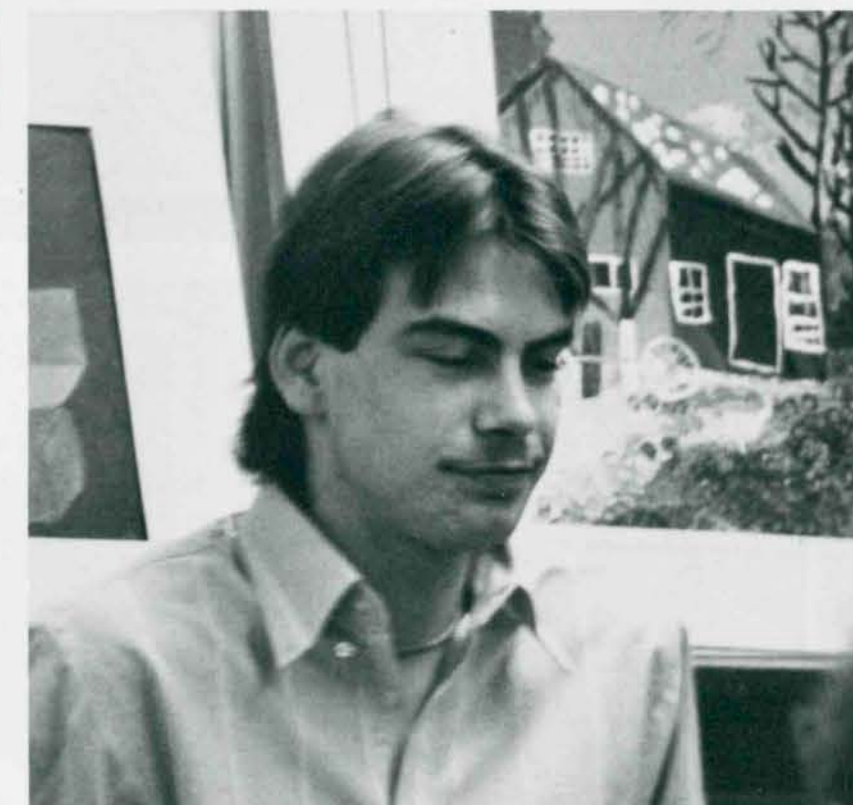

You just don't listen, do ya?

Okay, what's the joke?

No, Really?

And to think I posed for this picture.

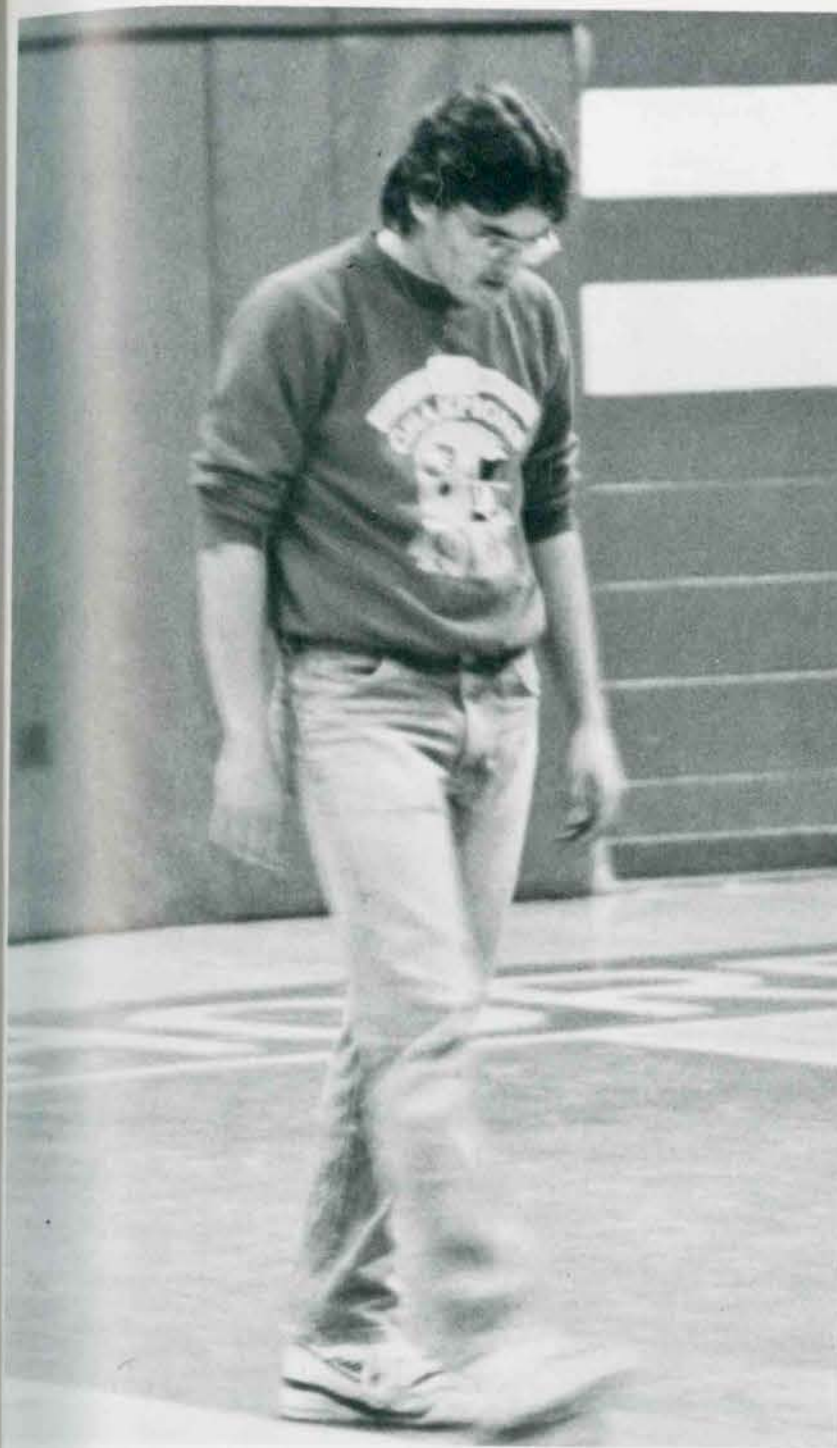

I don't know I wasn't paying attention.

You just wouldn't believe!!

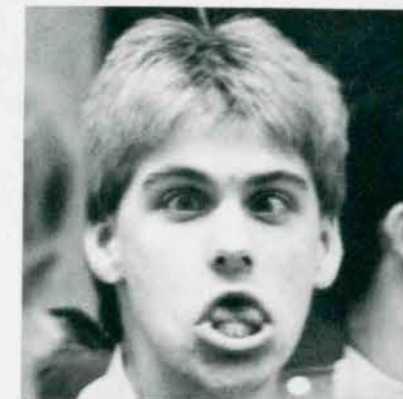

Our Junior Class- "What can we say? We're awesome!"

You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet

The Junior Class

Larry! Did you ever see the movie Firestarter?

The Junior Class. Enough said.

There's nothing we can't handle—except running out of hairspray!!

Hey Werb!! Whatcha doin'?

"Is it true what they say about blonds?"

Notice The Eyes.

"What are you looking at?" "What am I looking at?"

"It's really very simple."

"It doesn't phase me in the least."

"The Class Of 1992 Is Always Looking."

"I knew I could do it."

"Watch me everyone."

"Are you talking to me?"

"Having A Hard Day, Brian?"

Is that right?

The three stooges?

I have NO idea!

Smile for the camera!

What can I say?

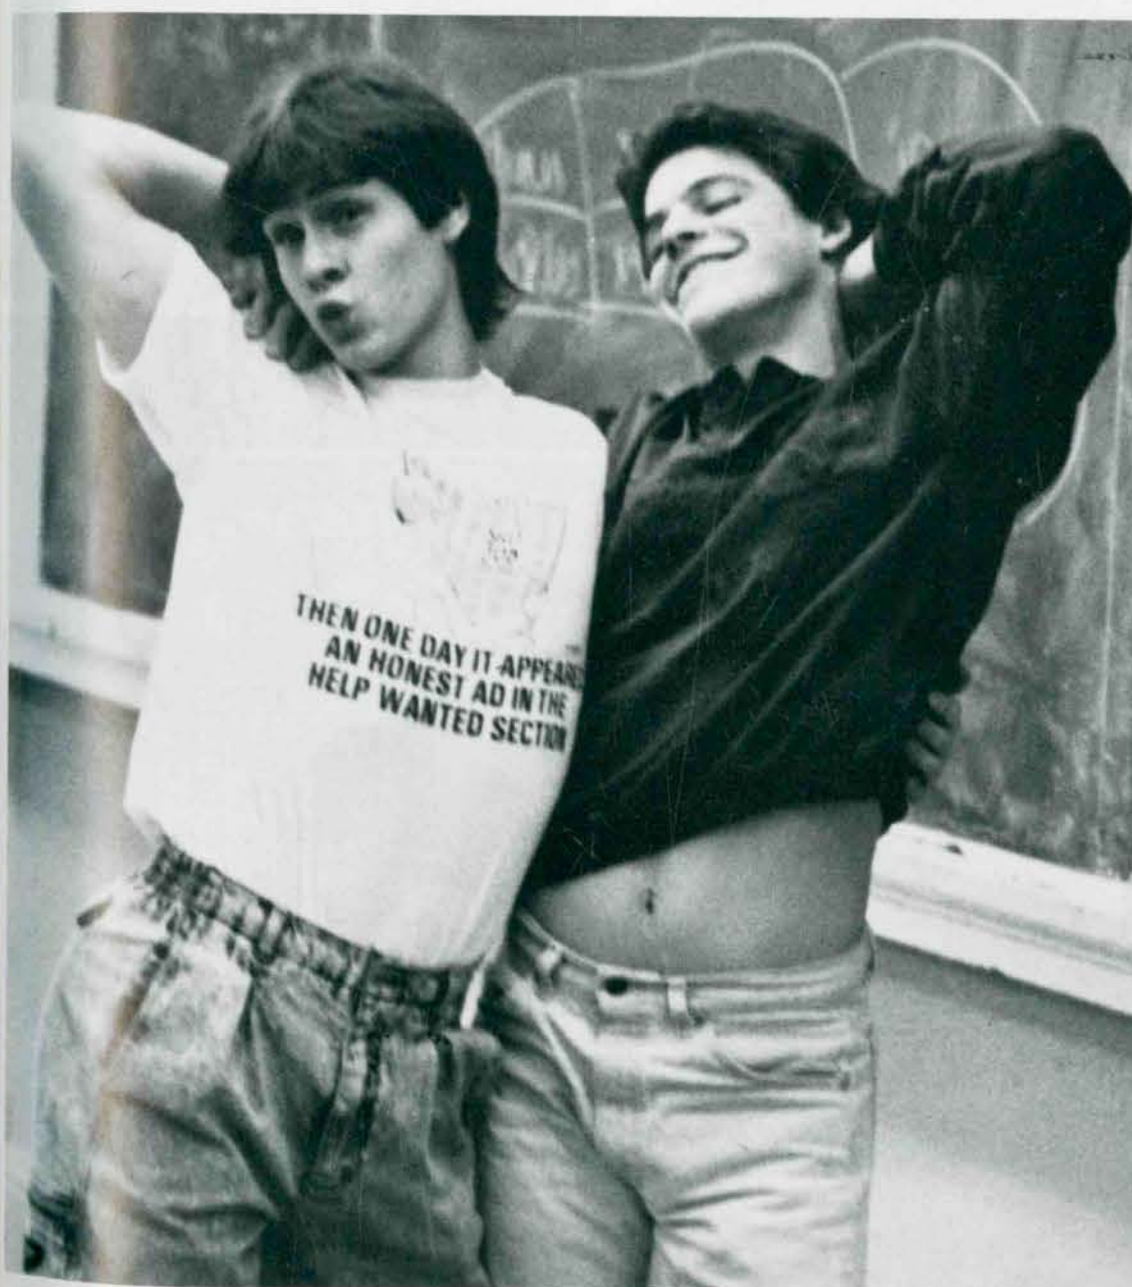

Look Ma! no hands!

Sittin' pretty-

Why ME?

Ooh la la!!

Are you kidding?

"SEARCHING FOR THE SE- CRET"

"THE SEARCH IS OVER"

Once upon a time in 'lil ol' West Side a story was started. Actually it was a secret that was let out.

One day Stacey was walking down the hall. We were hot on her trail to ask her what she knew about the secret. She wouldn't tell us a thing. It was almost as if she did not trust us with the information.

When we asked Keith, after bumping into him, he said to get some clues. Then he gave us one so we wouldn't be totally clueless. He showed us his impression of Gene Simmons. We don't know why he did it.

We snuck up on Mike. He was lost as usual.

Well, Jim and Fron know what the secret is. They finally, for once, got the information before the rest of us did. They knew more and wouldn't tell us.

Then we saw two who would give us the scoop. Tracey and Sharon were discussing the secret when we walked in. Even though they could not tell us what the hush was about, they told us to see Michelle.

When we found her, she said that Christy knew more and to talk to her. She gave a clue as we left. The secret was being kept undercover.

To talk to Christy, we had to go to the art room. Christy said we were on a wild chase, but a sophomore and a junior were in on it.

We saw Mike and decided to corner him. Once cornered, he told us everything. He said to go to the third floor and to look for another junior. He smiled as we left.

After an entire day of searching, we finally got to the bottom of the secret. There stood Jim saying "Here we are . . . The Secret you've been looking for. It's right in here, behind door #1!"

We were so excited as we gazed in. We were shocked! There was Dawn hanging upside down. This was the big secret?? We didn't believe that we could be so easily taken in. Amy and Kevin could not believe that we had fallen for it. They were falling down laughing when we told them what we had done.

Until we try to figure out another great mystery, we will try to keep ahead of everyone else. But we doubt that we will.

I can't believe that they are doing that in class! What's that? Trying to hide the evidence? Those smiles won't fool us.

Look at that! You almost stepped in that, that, What is it??

Do you want to see what is behind door number three or me?

Here's the crew that we've been searching for. Are you guys going to tell us what is going on—exactly?

Can you believe this—they just found out what hotdogs are made of!

36

I think Mr. Kelley is on to me . . . or did he just have a school flashback?

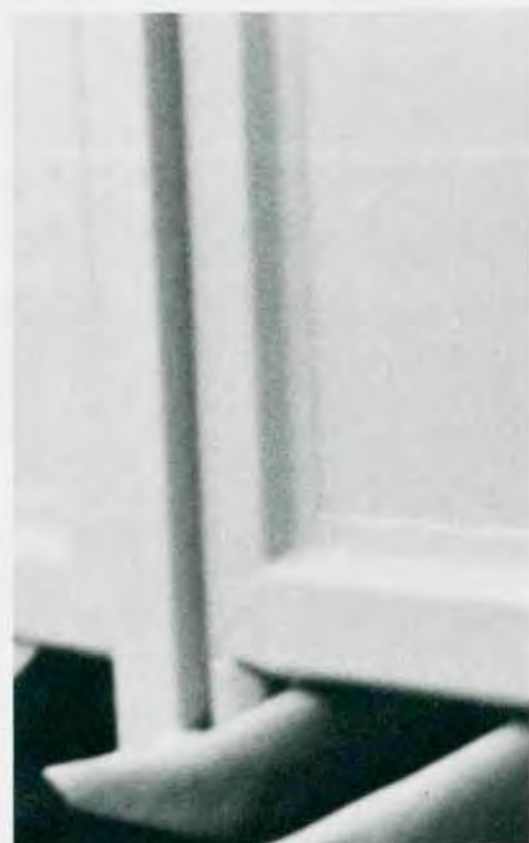

Good Night Sweetheart, It's Time To Go . . .

Guys, this is not the soccer page, but if you hurry you can catch it.

Thoughts . . .

Well, here's Molly. She is trying to think of more ideas for this yearbook. She's discovered that the ideas are running low.

This is a picture of our minds—BLANK! We yearbook people have burned out our brains on this book.

Carrie and Julie are busy working to make the pictures fit where they don't. Knowing the two, they could make a bird turn into a cat. They'll get it done.

The Yearbook Crew

Here two people are trying to figure out who's idea was the best. By the looks of it, none of the ideas appeals to them.

This year's yearbook staff consisted of an editor and about ten graphic-layout-design editors. With only one senior and a lot of juniors, along with a couple of sophomores, we all hope that this book turns out great. It was a long (too long), drawn out effort, but everyone did the best job they could think of doing.

Sometimes, it was a challenge to get the right pictures where they should go with the right captions, but we endured it. We managed to get everything and everyone in this yearbook. A lot of long hours after school and a few Saturday mornings were spent on this effort. Some of us even gave up our cartoons to dedicate ourselves to this cause.

We hope that you all enjoy all the pictures, sayings, captions, and everything else that this 1990 Yearbook includes. (One more thing . . . I wish everyone on next year's staff the best of luck with out too many headaches.-CMP-)

Do you know who this is? He's the guy who sneaks up on you when you least expect it and takes your picture. He's none other than the one and only MR. SIMON!

This is what our editor thinks about pictures and the yearbook in general. Bet she'll be happy when it's finished.

Unbelievable! They Won A Game.

The hard work payed off for the girl's soccer team this year. Although they didn't win every game, they didn't lose every game either. Their losses were usually by just a few points. Next year they hope to have a better season, and they have a good chance of winning more games.

Back me up I'm going Don't grab my foot!

They Tried Their Hardest, But It Just Wasn't Enough.

"We struggled, and we tried hard, but it just didn't pay off."

State Runners-up

THE Track Team

The girls' softball team had a great season. They made it all the way to the finals only to lose to Arlington. They surprised everyone by winning games against tough opponents by never giving up.

Rick Currier was W.R.'s only track runner. He practiced with Rutland's team. He had an impressive season finishing 4th in the 400 and 6th in the 200 in the state finals.

The Boys - Baseball that is...

This year the boys' baseball team made it to the quarter finals. They had a great season with Larry on the mound, Matt behind the plate, and Mr. Caliguiri's coaching. Watching them reminds us of the movie Major League.

"When these oddballs try to play hardball, it really is screwball ..."
